The Resurrection Changes Everything - Believing Is Rewarded

Mark 12:41-44

THE POINT: The widow's offering reveals she has a depth of _____ in God far greater than the others who give much greater offerings.

The widow's offering is more because her heart of belief says MUCH MORE:

This world is not my _____. My home is with God.

This money is not my true treasure. _____ is my treasure.

This life is not all satisfying. Only life in the eternal _____ is all satisfying.

I believe God, not my money, supplies all my _____.

I believe the greater _____ is having God not having earthly things.

It's not wrong to strive after the _____ reward. As a matter of fact we are instructed to strive after the greater reward which is God, Himself.

Consider the ways the Bible commands us to demonstrate our belief which is then rewarded.

Confession of _____ in Christ.

Confession of faith in our _____.

Confession of faith in _____.

Confession of faith in humble _____.
