

Sermon Notes

Lord, Teach Us To Pray And Why

Psalm 28

Psalm 28 teaches us to pray this way 1) ask God for your needs, then 2) exult in who God is.

What does it mean to exult? Exult means: _____

In verses 1-5 David _____ God to meet his need.

In verses 6-9 David _____ from asking God to exulting in God.

What does it mean to exult in prayer? It means in your prayer _____ about who God is and what He does.

David exults / rejoices in God for these specific things:

v.6 For He has heard the voice of my pleas for mercy

v.7 The Lord is my strength and my shield

v.7 in Him my heart trusts, and I am helped

v.7 my heart exults

v.7 with my song I give thanks to him

v.8 the LORD is the strength of His people

v.8 He is the saving refuge of His anointed

What does exulting in God do for us?

1. It lifts our eyes up to see that God, Himself is the _____ and lasting fulfillment to our every prayer.
2. It lifts our souls up to reassure us He will _____ for us in whatever matter we are praying.
3. It lifts us from focusing on our weakness and neediness to focus on _____ God.
